

“The Library Staff as Partners in the Educational Community”

Enid Davis – The Harker School

BAYNET, 9/23/09

References

Abilock, Debbie, ed. Standards and Guidelines for Strong School Libraries.

Sacramento: California School Library Association, 2004. Print. Appendix A contains the Recommended Information Literacy Skills Curriculum, Grades K-12. Free on the web: http://www.csla.net/pub/pdf/CSLA\_Standards.pdf

Davis, Enid. "Leveraging Our Cutting Edge Library Tools and Resources: An Information Literacy Success Story." MultiMedia & Internet @ Schools Sept.-Oct. 2004: 25-27. Print. A description of the actions taken to establish a formalized information literacy program at The Harker School. This article is available on several databases.

Davis, Enid. "The Ogre Awards." Knowledge Quest May-June 2008:

38-43. Print. A history and description of the second grade play created, produced and directed by Enid Davis. This article is available online:

http://www.ala.org/ala/mgrps/divs/aasl/aaslpubsandjournals/knowledgequest/kqwebarchives/v36/365/KQW36\_5Davis.pdf

Eisenberg, Mike, and Robert Berkowitz. The Big6. Web. 3 Sept. 2009.

<<http://www.big6.com>>. In addition to many books, the creators of the Big6 and the Super3 have an active web site regarding their problem solving methodology.

The Harker School. For a brief history, see <http://www.harker.org/page.cfm?p=95>

The Harker School. For a description of our information literacy program, see <http://www.harker.org/page.cfm?p=558>

Partners:

Partner for self-growth and growth of the community

Encourage risk-taking for the sake of the community

Share the work, at times not equally

Go out of their way to help each other

Have fun while working together

Prove that two or three or ten heads are better than one

Lighten each other's load.