Best-selling authors tour Bay Area libraries

Several critically-acclaimed and best-selling authors will be visiting Bay Area libraries between the months of March and June, as part of Big Box Programming, a grant supported in whole or in part by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, administered in California by the State Library. Ellen Sussman, Kelly Corrigan, Lisa Lutz, Ron Hansen, M. Allen Cunningham and Catherine Ryan Hyde will be making multi-library appearances, for a grand total of 26 events throughout the Bay Area.

All events are free to the public.

ABOUT BIG BOX PROGRAMMING

Big Box Programming is the result of a Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) funded grant intended to develop best-practices for cooperative program development between libraries. Utilizing centralized communication between the libraries and authors, speakers and presentation groups, as well as developing an online database, Big Box Programming is aimed at facilitating the process that brings effective, top-quality library programming to the communities.
